

Workshop on

Geometric Analysis: In Honor of Alice Chang and Paul Yang

Time 2026/03/13

Venue R505, Cosmology Bldg., NTU

Aim & Scope

Professors Alice Chang and Paul Yang have made monumental contributions to the fields of geometric analysis and conformal geometry. Beyond their scholarly achievements, they have been instrumental in mentoring and inspiring generations of younger mathematicians. The objective of this one-day workshop is to provide a platform for students and researchers in Taiwan to engage in academic exchange, offering them a unique opportunity to learn from and be inspired by the vision and wisdom of these two distinguished masters.
